Alma Platinum IV Selwood Market Neutral Credit

Fund Assets under Management: € 435,275,568

Investment Strategy

The Fund provides access to a UCITS compliant version of the Selwood Market Neutral Credit Strategy managed by Sofiane Gharred and his team at Selwood Asset Management ("Selwood"). The strategy was launched in September 2015 and trades a single investment strategy focused on liquid credit indices within the investment grade credit space. It implements the strategy by investing in CDX and iTraxx indices, tranches of these, index options and single name CDS. The goal is to achieve a market neutral portfolio which has a positive carry and positive convexity. The strategy attempts to monetise the dislocation between the actual credit spread of the CDX and iTraxx index and that implied by the CDS of the underlying index components. There has been a persistent difference between these spreads since the indices were launched in 2004, largely due to the indices being used predominantly to hedge credit exposure. The team will buy CDS on the most risky single name credits in order to minimise the risk of default to the portfolio. In addition to the core strategy supplemental alpha opportunities arise roll yield as the index rolls twice per annum to the new on-the-run series, the strategy will profit from the technical cheapening of the previous on-the-run index; the strategy also utilises derivatives such as options to create a positively convex return profile in order to try to minimise market risk.

Performance History (23.03.2016 - 30.06.2020) <sup>(1)</sup>

Monthly Return Last 12 Months <sup>(1)</sup>

Key Benefits

- Selwood Asset Management LLP ("Selwood") was established in 2015 in London, UK.
- The Fund provides access to a UCITS compliant version of Selwood flagship strategy ("Selwood Market Neutral Credit Offshore Fund") managed by Sofiane Gharred (3)
- Selwood manages over $3.5 billion as of end of June 2020(4)
- The Selwood Market Neutral Credit Offshore Fund has generated annualised returns of 8.74% since inception, with an attractive Sharpe ratio of 1.95(4).
- An independent third party will calculate NAVs and publish these daily.
- Currency hedges are effected for share classes not denominated in EUR to partly protect against fluctuations of exchange rate(5).
- The strategy seeks to exploit the persistent dislocation between spreads of specific investment grade credit indices. It will invest long and short in a market neutral manner, either directly in credit indices or indirectly using derivatives on these indices.
- The strategy also utilises derivatives such as options to create a positively convex return profile in order to try to minimise market risk.

Key Risks

- The Fund provides exposure to bond markets and may also provide exposure to other asset classes, which may be highly volatile and result in losses.
- The Fund may enter into one or more derivatives with a number of counterparties. If any of the counterparties fail to make payments (for example, it becomes insolvent) this may result in your investment suffering a loss.
- Movements in exchange rates can impact the value of your investment. If the currency of your country of origin is different from the currency in which the underlying investments of the Fund are made (EUR), the value of your investment may increase or decrease subject to movements in exchange rates.
- The Investment Manager may, subject at all times to the Investment Restrictions, use financial leverage in managing the Fund, including increasing investment capacity, covering operating expenses and making withdrawal payments or for clearance of transactions. Financial leverage includes, but is not limited to, buying securities on margin.
- The Fund is not guaranteed and your investment is at risk. The value of your investment may go down as well as up. The Fund has been designed for investors who are looking for long term capital growth through exposure to alternative investment strategies. As the Fund may therefore employ complex strategies (including the use of derivatives), it is intended only for knowledgeable and experienced investors who are able to understand and evaluate both the investment strategy and its inherent risks (such understanding and evaluation may be gained through advice from a professional advisor).
- The Fund is complex and may use derivatives to take long or short positions on various markets and increase exposure to particular investments. The use of derivatives involves a high level of risk as derivatives can be highly leveraged, highly volatile, and may increase gains as well as magnify losses.
- The Fund relies upon the performance of the Investment Manager and the successful implementation of the Strategy. If the Investment Manager performs poorly or the Strategy is not successful, the value of your investment is likely to be adversely affected.

Commentary -Selwood Asset Management LLP - June<sup>(21)</sup>

Market Comment:

Risk sentiment in June was broadly positive as additional stimulus and certain macro data improvements mitigated the fear of a second virus wave. The ECB raised its PEPP package by EUR 600mn (to EUR 1.35trn) and UK's BoE added another GBP 100bn to its QE. On the fiscal side, Germany announced EUR 130bn of aid, higher than the EUR 50-100bn expected, while there was talk of further US stimulus. US and UK retail sales recovered strongly as auto sales in particular improved mom, but the US employment picture was more mixed. NFPs came in with a surprising jobs gain of 2,509k (cons. job losses -7,500k), but initial jobless and continuing claims remained resolutely high through the month indicating a plateauing of people returning to work. UK GDP saw its largest monthly decline on record, falling -20.4% in April after the -5.8% decline in March with all parts of the economy in deep negative territory. Fears of a second virus wave increased as many US states saw an uplift in new cases and many states still with a R-level >1. Germany and Australia also saw a spike in cases, albeit on a regional basis, while Beijing shut down part of its local economy and instigated travel restrictions into/out of the city. Oil had a good month on no particular headlines as WTI rose 10.65% closing at USD 39.27/bbl, bringing some relief to the beleaguered (principally US) higher cost producers.

Past performance is not a guarantee of future results, and an investment in Alma Platinum IV Selwood Market Neutral Credit (LICITS) could lose value. Gross performance is computed by taking the official NAV figures and adding back the management and incentive fees.

Exposure Comment:

- We have been active unwinding legacy positions on tranches and indices.
- We added senior exposure to Xover index where we see attractive dislocation
- We added as well some short-dated carry (Dec-21) to take advantage of credit curve dislocations.
- We added as well tail hedges to position against a market correction in the coming months.
