What is this product?

Type

- This product is a class of share of the Sub-Fund and denominated in USD. The Fund Alma Capital Investment Funds is an open ended investment company with a variable capital and qualifies as an Undertaking for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities ("UCITS"), subject to Part I of the Luxembourg law of 17 December 2010 relating to undertakings for collective investment ("Investment Fund Law"), transposing Directive 2009/65/EC related to UCITS.
- As an investment fund, the return of the Sub-Fund depends on the performance of its underlying assets.

Objectives

Investment objective

- The investment objective of the Sub-Fund is to provide long-term returns similar to global equities with substantially lower volatility by investing primarily in convertible securities of global corporate issuers. Convertible securities are "hybrid" securities that possess both fixed income and equity characteristics. A properly selected convertible security offers the ability to participate in a substantial portion of the underlying common stock's advances while being sheltered from a significant portion of its decline. In addition, a convertible security generally provides a current yield in excess of the dividend yield on the underlying common stock. Convertible securities also tend to exhibit a much lower degree of interest rate sensitivity than traditional fixed income securities and have a different set of performance drivers.

Investment policy

- In seeking to achieve the Sub-Fund's investment objective, the Investment Manager employs a quantitative, "bottom up" investment approach that utilises proprietary analytical tools developed by the Investment Manager to identify statistically undervalued convertible securities with attractive risk/return characteristics. Credit analysis is used to determine the value of the straight debt component or "bond floor", which establishes a convertible's downside risk. The investment process generally does not rely on economic, interest rate or stock market forecasts, fundamental equity or technical analysis or market timing. To a lesser degree, the Investment Manager may consider market trends, industry group strengths, reported transactions of insiders and major shareholders, advice of investment specialists and other sources of information.
- The primary focus in portfolio construction is identifying structurally attractive convertibles with an emphasis on balanced profiles. Such convertibles exhibit return properties that are projected to capture a substantial portion of any rise in the underlying common stock while providing meaningful downside protection should the underlying stock decline. Maintaining a well-diversified portfolio by issue, issuer, and industry is also important given the Investment Manager's quantitative approach and non reliance on forecasting. In addition, the compositional and structural characteristics of the convertible market can vary significantly by region. Accordingly, the utilisation of a global opportunity set enhances the Investment Manager's ability to both diversify the portfolio and optimise its overall risk/return profile.

- The Sub-Fund may hedge stock market risk using stock options, warrants and other derivatives. The Sub-Fund's hedging positions, if any, are intended to reduce (not eliminate) market risk.
- A maximum of 10% of the Sub-Fund's net assets may be invested in units or shares of UCITS or other UCIs.
- The Sub-Fund may invest in certain types of derivatives, including, but not limited to, options, futures and options on futures, swaps and forward currency exchange contracts.
- In exceptional market situations, the Sub-Fund may temporarily hold up to 100% of its assets in cash.
- The Sub-Fund is actively managed with no reference to a benchmark.
- The Sub-Fund does not promote environmental or social characteristics in a way that meets the specific criteria contained in Article 8 of the Sustainable Financial Disclosure Regulation ("SFDR") or have sustainable investment as its objective in a way that meets the specific criteria contained in Article 9 of SFDR.
- Given the above objectives and the risk and reward profile of the product, the recommended holding period is 5 years.
